

DON'T BE THE APPRENTICE BE THE BOSS!

We believe that starting, growing and running a business should not be all about personalities, entertainment or mythical creatures. We know it is about great ideas, innovative solutions, hard work and client focus. Alongside all of this you will have a great partner to help you through all the ups and downs of starting, growing and running a business. We believe we can be that value added partner.

This is what we offer:

- Established business model that creates real, intrinsic capital wealth
- Terrific support infrastructure, in terms of IT, Accountancy and Finance
- Great people to work with, with hundreds of years combined experience in this business
- Specialist knowledge of our industry
- Unrivalled global network (largest private network of international offices in our sector)
- No better knowledge of international recruitment to be found anywhere
- Proven track record of realising substantial capital value
- Transaction Team with value added experience
- A win-win equity structure that works
- Autonomy with assistance, you are running your own business
 - but with a listening and helpful partner
- A well recognised international brand
- Systems, methodologies and processes that have a proven track record
- A management team that will not disappear after the initial meetings
 - but support you through your business life
- 16 years of success in Global Recruitment Markets
- Recruitment is our business, life and passion!
